Notes from the editor...

Having received very little content for this May issue of Network, I take this opportunity to type here a few notes of my own. Firstly, you have noticed that some issues have been produced late. Many of you are aware of my ongoing difficult personal circumstances. As the editing of the magazine is rather low on my priority list, it is often late. We have taken steps to reduce the delay whenever possible and to minimise the impact in terms of content (for instances the Church Diary holds two months worth of dates instead of just the one previously). According to records, the first Network magazine I edited was June 2011 (which surprised me as it really does not feel like that long ago when I started). If anyone would like to volunteer to take on the editing of Network, they will be very welcome.

Secondly, the Network magazine is a communications resource to be used by all: members of our congregation and of the other organisations who use the church building (Noah's Ark, Guides', Street Pastors, etc.). Whether it is jokes, your favourite Bible passage, poems (thanks to Valerie Light for the excellent verse of recent issues) or a full essay, we would like to share it. It can also be quizzes, games, riddles, pictures, drawings, recipes, cuttings from other magazines (copyright permitting which usually is fine). It would be good to have more items for prayer, news (good or bad), reports of different activities and events, be they from organisations using the building or from our fellowship attending events elsewhere. You can send your contributions at any time, by post, phone, fax, e.-mail, as detailed below or to me in person.

Finally, I would like to thank the many individuals of our fellowship who have provided Helen, Genevieve, Thomas and me with the huge support that has got us through the past few years. I feel very much privileged being part of this fellowship. Praise be to our Lord for his eternal grace and the expression of his love through us.

Church Diary Welcome!
